Course Overview

The SIT50422 Diploma of Hospitality Management qualification reflects the role of highly skilled senior operators who use a broad range of hospitality skills combined with managerial skills and sound knowledge of the industry to coordinate hospitality operations. They operate independently, have responsibility for others and make a range of operational business decisions.

This is a nationally recognised qualification.

Course Outcome

This qualification provides a pathway to work in any hospitality industry sector as a departmental or small business manager. The diversity of employers includes restaurants, hotels, motels, catering operations, clubs, pubs, cafes and coffee shops. This qualification allows for multiskilling and specialisations in accommodation services, cookery, food and beverage and gaming.

The latest release of the qualification and packaging rules can be found at training.gov.au:
